CITIZENS PARTICIPATION:

Anthony Tabler, 3517 Janell Road, concerned about the drug deals I see daily in the apartment parking lot next to my home. I would like to see more of a police presence.

Phil Fried, 2004 Appleton Lane, I want to thank those involved with removing the trailers from the corner lot. Now I want them to fix the ground they have torn up.

Anna Stith, 2225 Deveron Drive, there are wrecked parked cars in my neighbors driveway; they work on cars after 10:30 pm the noise keeps me awake. Dogs on each side of my home bark continuously, one even went after a visitor at my home. Garbage is down one side of the house of my neighbors home. I see their family bring in garbage and dump it there.

Cynthia House, 1830 Nobel Place, thank you to Ms. Johnson for the Shively Hip Hop Dance Team my granddaughter is one of them. Thank you to Mr. Haywood and public works for clearing my yard of the large items. I think the bullying performance is something all churches and schools need to hear. My house is in a flood plain, next to the drain in my yard is a sinkhole, I would like the drainage looked at. I want to know if I need permission to put a higher fence in my backyard.

Robert Drane, 2016 Foxhurst Drive, no one stops at the stop sign on corner, I would like to see police write tickets or let me. I want the sign removed that has been placed in my yard that says No Parking On Grass.

Sheila M. Todd, 3016 Dixie Hwy., I want help with the motorcycle club and the noise that is generated from their property. I can hear them in my home with the windows closed. I have collected names, a petition, from neighbors that are tired of the noise from that club staying open all night. What do you plan to do?

ADJOURN:

There being no further business to come before the council, motion by Ms. Burton, second by Mr. Burrell to adjourn the meeting.

All in favor signify by saying aye. Those opposed, no. Ayes have it, so ordered. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned at 7:58 p.m. All ayes present.
