CITIZENS PARTICIPATION:

Pam Young, 1905 Kendall Lane, the stop signs are on the telephone poles and are not clearly visible to traffic speeding down our street. Traffic and school buses travel too fast, throwing out trash, I want a 25MPH street sign put up so traffic will know the speed limit on the street. Homeowners do not pick up the trash thrown out by people speeding by in their cars.

Ken Burton, 3500 Park Row, large semi, car carriers and delivery trucks drive on Janell. There are no signs posted saying no large trucks.

Nathan Jefferson, 1924 Nelson Avenue, I want to thank the Police, Fire and Council for the work they do.

Ruby Hyde, 3804 Darlene Drive, Congratulations to the winners of the 2018 election. I am a 40 year member to the U.S. Tennis Association, I am glad to see the tennis programs in Shively. Thank you for taking care of a fire at my neighbors home, thank you to the fire and police. Cars travel in National Heights subdivision too fast, I would like speed bumps on Darlene Drive. Everyone is invited to the Annual Taste of Darlene Drive. June 23 – 24, 1 to 8 PM. It is a way for neighbors to get to know each other, there will be food stations around the circle at many individual houses, games, dancing and music for all ages. My daughter, Nashan Hyde, will have a book signing on June 21, 5:30-7:30PM, 716 East Broadway. I have been working directly with Direct TV, if anyone is interested in saving money I have a direct contact.
