M.O. No. 4, Series 2020 – MSD LETTER OF INTENT. Introduced by Shanell Thompson. Motion by Chester Burrell, second by Tiffany Burton-McBroom.

Dayrl Koppel, 4019 Dixie Hwy., I own several commercial properties and I live in Shively. John Haywood and the city have always taken care of my drainage concerns. I would like for the city to continue being responsible for our drainage and not have MSD fees.

John E. Bowling, 2805 Ralph Ave., my drainage problems have always been handled by the city and I have been satisfied with the work they have done since the early 1970’s. I hope you can continue to take care of business and not join with MSD.

Mike Stuber, 4807 Dover Rd., I have lived here 60 years and do not want MSD to take over the drainage. The notice for the MSD meeting was the smallest article in the newsletter and many commercial owners do not know the city is considering joining MSD. I am not in favor and have names of others that oppose joining MSD.

ROLL CALL:

Lisa Beard – no	Chester Burrell – no	Tiffany Burton-McBroom - no
Maria Johnson – no	Shanell Thompson – no	Wendell Vincent – no

PUBLIC COMMENTS:

Dean Nevitt, 1859 Farnsley Road, democrats want the power in the country.

Hiroshio Sherrell and Dominique Hill, 1901 Auburn Dr., we received code violations for excessive water not being able to drain from our front yard. We spoke to MSD and public works trying to get help. Public works finally came out and dug out some, but it made it worse. This spring we went ahead to get drainage done, since it is in the easement, we were suppose to be splitting the bill with the city.

ADJOURN:

There being no further business to come before the council, motion by Chester Burrell, second by Lisa Beard to adjourn the meeting.

All in favor signify by saying aye. Those opposed, no. Ayes have it, so ordered. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned at 7:28 p.m. All ayes present.

Beverly Chester-Burton, Mayor

Mitzi R. Kasitz, Clerk
