STAT, Strategic Threat Assessment Training, co-founders Dale Massey and Eric Culver presented an overview of training classes available to preventing mass shootings, how to handle issues after the shooting and train civilians on how to survive. Three pillars of survival they teach are Escape, Evade and the Engage method.

PUBLIC COMMENTS:

Dennis Coggeshall, Garey Lane, placement of trash can next to my driveway, cans are left in the road after collection. Parking in the street is a problem in my neighborhood. If there was ever a disaster at the distillery and the fire department damaged our yards, who will be responsible for the damage to our yards.

Rowena Bolin, Ecton Lane, I drive 25mph on Farnsley Road, I am commonly passed by other cars. Can the speed limit be raised from 25 to 35 or enforced?

ADJOURN:

There being no further business to come before the council, motion by Ms. Burton-McBroom, second by Ms. Bizzle to adjourn the meeting.

All in favor signify by saying aye. Those opposed, no. Ayes have it, so ordered. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned at 7:45 p.m.
