Emily Liu, Director of Louisville Metro’s Office of Planning & Design Services, our office is there to answer any questions you have. We serve the entire county, including small cities, answering questions on what you can do with your property and what your neighbors can do. Call our office for rezoning, new subdivisions, conditional use permits, and we have the whole zoning code. You can call our office if your neighbor is doing car repair, that is not allowed in residential area.

Rachel Casey, Senior Planning Office of Planning, Shively does control their own Zoning and Land Development Code from 2008. There is a housing crisis, and racial inequities in our Land Development Code (LDC). In 2020 the LDC redevelopment began, I am here to speak about accessory dwelling units (ADU), attached and detached units. Louisville Metro Council in 2021, approved the update to the Louisville Metro LDC to allow ADU’s by right in single family districts if the code standards are met.
