Ms. Gibson - yes
Ms. Wakaba - absent

Mr. Gibson, absent.

Ms. Gibson, Lumos, the fiber optic company that came to us, there have been issues with their work in Indiana and Fern Creek, gas and water lines have been hit during installation.

Shively Health Fair: July 26, 10am till 2pm, St. Paul Shively Heights, is allowing the use of their gym for free. Several businesses have signed up to participate: Norton Health Care is bringing 4 Wellness Teams, Shively Area Ministries, Harbor House, and Sign-a-Rama is donating a retractable banner. There will be free blood pressure and glucose screenings, heart health screening, BMI screenings, eye car screenings and much more. I have reached out to businesses for giveaways, I have received donations for door prizes: free oil changes from Honda and Toyota, Hobby Lobby gift card, healthy snacks from Kroger and Walmart

Can we change the city sign on Crums Lane, to look like the new round signs in and around our city?

Ms. Thompson, S.E.O.Y. meeting August 2, 10:00am.

Mr. Vincent, a resident, mentioned the Shively Golf course could be considered for the tennis court and the pickle ball court Louisville rejected. Also, the Data Center rejected in Oldham County, we could consider reaching out to see if it could be located at the old golf course.

I see rental scooters being left on sidewalks around the city, maybe the public works could pick them up, and take them to a gathering place.

Ms. Wakaba, absent.
